

THE PRIESTLY FRATERNITY OF ST PETER AUCKLAND LATIN MASS CHAPLAINCY

St Anne's Chapel | 3 Cole Place, Te Atatu South

THE SECOND SUNDAY
OF ADVENT

5TH DECEMBER, 2021

Pax Christi,

Let us give thanks to God for His never ending graces which support us in all our needs and enable us to be His children and grow closer to Him each day. The closer we draw to Him and His will for us, the more we will be at peace, the less the troubles of the world can affect us. Now we have started the traffic light system, we must show a good degree of flexibility and a lot of charity. By choosing to come to our Masses (whether you are vaccinated or not), you will be tested (or could that be punished) for wanting to include all schools of thought. So be it, God's grace is sufficient for each of us to achieve our life's goal, unity with our Creator. I suppose being different is something that marks out a good Catholic in today's world, it certainly is a sign of one who attends the Latin Mass. To that end I will give you a quote of our Holy Father from a couple of days ago.

"We should not experience diversity as a threat to identity; we should not be jealous or defensive, if we fall into this temptation, then fear grows, and fear gives rise to distrust, distrust leads to suspicion, and then, sooner or later, to conflict. Walls do not and should not exist in the Catholic Church. For the Church is a common home, a place of relationships and of coexistence in diversity."

There is far too much jealousy, fear, distrust, suspicion and conflict in the world today. Just as your decision to attend a Mass which is not using a vaccine pass is a way to avoid division, and encourage diversity of opinion, so too your decision to attend the Latin Mass is a way of coexisting in diversity. This Mass has never been a threat to the identity of Catholicism, rather, it was the sign of Catholic identity for centuries and as Pope Benedict XVI said of it, What earlier generations held as sacred, remains sacred and great for us too, and it cannot be all of a sudden entirely forbidden or even considered harmful. So, be at peace in your own decisions if they are not sinful. No one knows the future, none of us can, we waste your time trying to find it. So, rejoice in the small gifts that you have and be grateful for the wonders of grace that God promised to provide and continues to send.

THE SECOND SUNDAY OF ADVENT

GOSPEL

Matthew 11:2-10

INTROIT

Psalm 30:30, Psalm 79:2

People of Sion, behold the Lord shall come to save the nations: and the Lord shall make the glory of His voice to be heard, in the joy of your heart. Ps. Give ear, O Thou that rulest Israel: Thou that leadest Joseph like a sheep. V. Glory be to the Father.

COLLECT

Stir up our hearts, O Lord, to prepare the ways of Thine only-begotten Son; that through His coming we may attain to serve Thee with purified minds. Who with Thee liveth and reigneth.

EPISTLE

Romans 15:4-13

Brethren, What things soever were written, were written for our learning: that, through patience and the comfort of the Scriptures, we might have hope. Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of one mind one towards another, according to Jesus Christ; that with one mind and with one mouth you may glorify God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ. Wherefore receive one another, as Christ also hath received you unto the honour of God. For I say that Christ Jesus was minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made unto the fathers but that the Gentiles are to glorify God for His mercy, as it is written: Therefore will I confess to Thee, O Lord, among the Gentiles and will sing to Thy name. And again He saith: Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with His people. And again: Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and magnify Him, all ye people. And again, Isaias saith: There shall be a root of Jesse; and He that shall rise up to rule the Gentiles, in Him the Gentiles shall hope. Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing: that you may abound in hope, and in the power of the Holy Ghost.

GRADUAL

Psalm 49:2-3,5

Out of Sion the loveliness of His beauty: God shall come manifestly. V. Gather ye together His saints to Him, who have set His covenant before sacrifices.

ALLELUIA

Psalm 84. 4

Alleluia, alleluia. V. I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord. Alleluia

At that time, when John had heard in prison the works of Christ, sending two of his disciples, he said to Him: Art thou He that art to come, or look we for another? And Jesus making answer, said to them: Go and relate to John what you have heard and seen. The blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead rise again, the poor have the gospel preached to them: and blessed is he that shall not be scandalised in Me. And when they went their way, Jesus began to say to the multitudes concerning John: What went you out into the desert to see? A reed shaken with the wind? But what went you out to see? A man clothed in soft garments? Behold they that are clothed in soft garments are in the houses of kings. But what went you out to see? A prophet? Yea I tell you, and more than a prophet. For this is he of whom it is written: Behold I send My angel before Thy face, who shall prepare Thy way before Thee.

OFFERTORY

Psalm 84. 7-8

Thou wilt turn, O God, and bring us to life, and Thy people shall rejoice in Thee: show us, O Lord, Thy mercy, and grant us Thy salvation.

SECRET

Be appeased, we beseech Thee, O Lord, by the prayers and offerings of our humility: and where we have no merits to plead for us, do Thou help us with Thine aid. Through our Lord.

PREFACE OF THE MOST HOLY TRINITY

It is truly meet and just, right and for our salvation, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O holy Lord, Father almighty, everlasting God: Who, together with Thine only-begotten Son, and the Holy Ghost, are one God, one Lord: not in the oneness of a single Person, but in the Trinity of one substance. For what we believe by Thy revelation of Thy glory, the same do we believe of Thy Son, the same of the Holy Ghost, without difference or separation. So that in confessing the true and everlasting Godhead, distinction in persons, unity in essence, and equality in majesty may be adored. Which the Angels and Archangels, the Cherubim also and Seraphim do praise: who cease not daily to cry out, with one voice saying:

COMMUNION Bar. 5:5, 4:36

Arise, O Jerusalem, and stand on high, and behold the joy that cometh to thee from thy God.

POSTCOMMUNION

Filled with the food of this spiritual nourishment, we suppliantly entreat Thee, O Lord, that through our participation in this Mystery Thou wouldst teach us to despise earthly things and to love heavenly ones. Through our Lord.

O COME DIVINE MESSIAH

O come, divine Messiah!
The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph
And sadness flee away

Refrain:
Dear Saviour, haste
Come, come to earth
Dispel the night and show Thy face
And bid us hail the dawn of grace
O come, divine Messiah!
The world in silence waits the day
When hope shall sing its triumph
And sadness flee away

O Christ, whom nations sigh for
Whom priest and prophet long foretold
Come break the captive fetters
Redeem the long-lost fold. Refrain

SAMOAN COMMUNITY FEAST DAY CELEBRATIONS

The Feast of the Immaculate Conception is the Patronal Feast of the Diocese of Apia, Samoa and is also the feast of our Samoan Community here in the Latin Mass.

THE “TRAFFIC LIGHT” ARRANGEMENTS

St Anne’s Chapel will not be using the “Vaccine Pass”. Therefore, there will be no “Vaccinated only” Mass in the Latin Mass Chaplaincy. If you would like to attend such a Mass, please contact your local diocesan parish for information.

To satisfy the Ministry of Health guidelines during alert level “Red”

- St Anne’s Chapel will be open to the public, but all visitors MUST make sure they sign in or record their visit using the QR code. This must be done on every visit. If you are writing your details, you must use the paper slips and box provided.

- Mt St. Mary’s Chapel will be open for perpetual adoration from 12pm on Friday the 3rd December.

- All visitors MUST make use of the hand sanitising materials provided.

- All visitors MUST have a mask.

- The maximum capacity inside St Anne’s Chapel and Mt St Mary’s Chapel is 25 people following the social distancing rules.

- During Mass, the elderly will have priority to be inside the chapel. If you are asked to leave the chapel (by one of the ushers) to make space for people who are more in need, please follow the instructions. Hopefully, charity will prevail.

- If you are attending by standing outside the chapel during Mass, please keep social distance rules.

- Confession will follow the normal daily pre-covid schedule and communion will be given DURING Mass.

- If you are near the chapel and also watching the livestream during Mass, please use headphones. The livestream has a 1 minute delay and it is distracting for people around you.

- Please follow the instructions from the ushers in the high-viz vests at all times.

- If you are feeling sick or showing any signs of illness, stay at home and/or get a test.

- The Mass timetable during “Red”
